

Vantiq Academy

Overview

The Vantiq academy allows Vantiq partners to learn how to sell and use the Vantiq platform. Training is available either through online training or instructor-led training.

Instructor led training will require a similar amount of time as the On Demand training. Please contact enablement@vantiq.com for more information.

Sales Training (4 Hours)

The Vantiq sales track is designed to teach Vantiq partners to understand how to successfully position and sell the Vantiq platform to their customers. Upon completion of the Sales Training, sales professionals will be able to successfully prospect and qualify potential customers.

Prerequisites

This track is designed for account managers and business executives. Basic familiarity with technology and the software sales process will allow students to get the most value out of the training.

Technical Training

The Vantiq technical track is designed for developers who plan to use the Vantiq platform to develop and maintain real-time, event driven applications.

With the Vantiq Technical Training Program and sufficient time for self-study after the training, you will be enabled to develop end to end applications in less than 4 weeks!

Prerequisites

In order to get the most value out of this training, students should be proficient in software development. Familiarity with Java and/or JavaScript is recommended.

1. Vantiq Fundamentals \(2 Days\)
 - Completion of this course demonstrates you have a basic understanding of the Vantiq development paradigm, platform, and development resources to start developing basic event-driven real-time applications.
2. Vantiq Developer \(2 Days\)
 - The Developer course will teach students to design, build, deploy, test, and maintain applications using the industry standard Software Development Lifecycle (SDLC). Completion of this course will enable you to build applications using the Vantiq platform.
3. Vantiq Architect \(Coming Soon\)

Certification program

Each training course includes a certification. This certification allows you to showcase your Vantiq proficiency.
